Information is available at the following website:

A business may fill out this template to fulfill the requirement, or may develop its own Safety Plan. This Plan does not need to be submitted to a State agency for approval but must be retained on the premises of the business and must made available to the New York State Department of Health (DOH) or local health or safety authorities in the event of an inspection.

Business owners should refer to the State's industry-specific guidance for more information on how to safely operate. For a list of regions and sectors that are authorized to re-open, as well as detailed guidance for each sector, please visit: forward.ny.gov. If your industry is not included in the posted guidance but your business has been operating as essential, please refer to ESD's Essential Business Guidance and adhere to the guidelines within this Safety Plan. Please continue to regularly check the New York Forward site for guidance that is applicable to your business or certain parts of your business functions, and consult the State and Federal resources listed below.

GUIDANCE MEMORANDUM

OUTDOOR SEATING IN FOOD ESTABLISHMENTS

The Department of Health Services regulates the number of dining seats in food establishments, the maximum allowable number of which is indicated on a facility’s operating permit. Approved indoor seating may be temporarily relocated outside of the establishment without requiring a new application or review of plans, provided the total number of seats indicated on the permit is not increased. The following conditions must also be met:

- No food preparation is permitted in exterior dining areas.
- The facility does not undergo substantial remodeling, or make significant structural changes such as adding building square footage or modifications that affect external water supply/wastewater management infrastructure.
- Relocation of dining seats must be compliant with all state and local codes.
- Relocated exterior seating is subject to all COVID-19 recovery/reopening requirements, such as social distancing and capacity reductions that are issued by the New York State Department of Health or by executive order issued by the Governor.
