Georgia Mental Health Summit

Presented by Marsh & McLennan Agency, LLC
February 25, 2020
8:00 – 1:30 (lunch included)
Allison Smith Co – Training Center
1869 S Cobb Industrial Blvd SE, Smyrna, GA 30082

Did you know?
- The construction industry is #2 for percentage, and #1 for number of employee deaths by suicide.
- More than 43,000 suicides occur annually, exceeding the number of deaths due to car accidents
- Suicide is the second leading cause of death among men aged 25 – 54

This must change!

Please join us to hear the story of how one Atlanta area construction company faced this tragedy, and learn the steps you can take to…

- Build a caring culture to protect those at risk.
- Identify construction risk factors for suicide.
- Build a business case and develop an action plan for addressing addiction, mental illness, & suicide prevention in the workplace;
- Recognize the warning signs and what to do if an employee is believed to be at risk.

Who should attend:
Owners, Executives, CFOs, CEOs, Safety/Risk Management, and Human Resource Professionals

Sponsorships available:
Hope: $750 – Lunch Sponsor, Logo included on all event marketing materials and signage on the lunch tables.
Courage: $500 – Company logo included on all event marketing materials.

REGISTER HERE
For the Seminar & Sponsorship
MEET OUR SPEAKERS

Greg Sizemore, Associated Builders & Contractors

Greg is the vice president of health, safety, environment and workforce development at Associated Builders and Contractors. He is also responsible for ABC’s Safety Training and Evaluation Process, a benchmarking improvement tool that dramatically increases safety performance among participants by reducing recordable incidents by up to 85 percent, making the best-performing companies’ 680 percent safer than the industry average. For decades, Sizemore has been active as a volunteer leader in the safety and workforce development space. He is a past chair of the ABC National Craft Champions Committee and NCCER Workforce Development Committee. He currently serves on the board of directors of NCCER and is a trustee of the Construction Industry Alliance for Suicide Prevention.

Chris West, CSP, CHST

Chris is the safety director and captive insurance claims manager for Brent Scarbrough & Company. Chris was the corporate liaison between all the government agencies investigating the company’s first on the job fatality in 2018 which was concluded to be a suicide. He shares his personal story and lessons learned from his experience.

Stephen Cherniak, MS MBA

Steve joined the Marsh & McLennan Agency as an Employee Health Management Consultant after a 21 year career in directing health management and physical rehabilitation programs at Ford Motor Company. In that position, he had responsibilities for all of Ford’s 100,000+ employees and their health promotion programs nationwide.

Steve applies those years of experience and expertise to his MMA client-partners in program strategy and development, along with other developing industry trends including: incentive program design, federal wellness regulatory compliance, outcomes-based program design and management. All key for the purpose of integrating health management as a successful business strategy with an organization.

Tim Mitchell, BBA Finance; MDIV

Tim has served as a Chaplain in the workplace with Corporate Chaplains of America for the past 4 years. After 20 years of a professional business career he transitioned into ministry, primarily as a missionary in South America with third culture language groups. In all of his life experience: military, church, friends, professional, missionary and now as a chaplain, he has been involved in ministering and counseling that involves various aspects of suicide and counseling family members and coworkers of suicide victims.

Stuart Winborne, LCSW

Stuart is the Georgia Area Director for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. Stuart has been with AFSP Georgia for over 5 years leading the chapter’s growth in prevention education and support for loss survivors.