Single Login Option – Options for multiple users

If you prefer to use one login for everyone, and not have each teacher/catechist (or parents as teachers) register and create their own login with their own email and password, there are actually several options for everyone to use one login and get access to what they need:

1. Everyone uses your email address and the password you picked from when you registered as the only login. This doesn't give them access to anything of yours in any way.
2. You create a new email address that you use instead for the other users. You can have a new one set up on your parish account or even set up a Yahoo or Google email that will be used just to have a valid email address to create one login that everyone uses. If you ever need to reset the password, you will then have an email address that the reset link can be sent to.
3. You can create a fake email address (not as recommended). As long as what you put after the @ is a real email domain, the system should allow it. You will not however, be able to ever use the forget password feature.

With all of these options, you go into Register, put in your customer number and chose one of these email options and pick your password.

You will give that email address and password to everyone who needs access, and they will click the Log In button at top, and will not ever need to go to Register.
