COVID-19: Daily Update # 6
Monday, March 23, 2020

Central UofT & Faculty of Medicine Updates

U of T provides support to students in residence during COVID-19 outbreak (Bulletin Brief)

U of T is supporting and caring for students who are staying in residence during the COVID-19 outbreak, while actively assisting students who are trying to make arrangements to go home.

Department Updates

Learners

COVID-19 Residency Update - March 23

An update from Dr. Mark Fefergrad, Director, Postgraduate Education, on the impacts of COVID-19 on the Department's residents.

Faculty

CAMH Special Grand Rounds on COVID-19 preparedness, internal response, and ways to cope (online)

Catherine Zahn, Vicky Stergiopoulos, Tracey MacArthur, and Jan Malat will be sharing the latest about CAMH's system coordination and internal responses.

Coronavirus on the inpatient unit: a new challenge for psychiatry

Dr. Frank Sommers has shared a review of the challenges COVID-19 poses to psychiatry units from Medscape.
Go home and stay home, Trudeau tells Canadians as government warns of COVID-19 enforcement measures

Stiff enforcement measures could be imposed if people don't stop engaging in behaviour that puts lives at risk.