FAIL FORWARD:
BREAKING DOWN THE WALLS OF ACADEMIC PERFECTION

SAVE THE DATE!
THURSDAY, SEPT 17, 2020, 4:30-6:00PM

Join us for a virtual evening of storytelling as outstanding UD leaders courageously share experiences of failures that propelled them into growth and success.

Opening remarks by Dr. Adam Foley, Director of Diversity Education, Assessment, and Outreach. Moderation by Dr. Lisa Jaremka, Assistant Professor in Psychological and Brain Sciences, and Dr. Helen Mach, Postdoctoral Researcher in Communication Sciences and Disorders. Final reflections by Dr. Rebecca Hunting Pompon, Assistant Professor in Communication Sciences and Disorders.

"Every great personal story you have to tell involved overcoming adversity. If you shy away from adversity, you take away your ability to tell new stories."
— Farrel Droke

MEDINA JACKSON-BROWNE
Assistant Professor in Epidemiology

COLE GALLOWAY
Professor in Physical Therapy and Psychology and Brain Sciences

ANJANA BHAT
Associate Professor in Physical Therapy and Psychology and Brain Sciences

AMANDA OWEN VAN HORNE
Associate Professor in Communication Sciences and Disorders

SUPRAWEE TEPSUPORN
Assistant Dean for Graduate Professional Development

More details and registration info forthcoming!

For questions, please contact hmach@udel.edu