

Tell me a story

Make up an oral story with your child. Start it off and encourage your child to add on, continue taking turns doing so until it is complete.

Here's an idea to get your story started:

Sally and her brother Johnny went on an adventure in the forest. As they were walking through the woods, they stumbled upon something magical...

