

Delaire Graff Estate launches “The Banghoek”

Delaire Graff describes this new gem as “the making of a legend”. The Banghoek 2016 is a tribute to the region and profound history of Banghoek.

“The Banghoek 2016 is a love letter to its namesake, showcasing a delicate mélange of history, structure, aroma, tannin and flavour of poised distinction.”

This wine is a graceful and elegant blend of Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Petit Verdot and Malbec. Delaire Graff Estate is located below the Botmaskop Peak which formerly served as an essential lookout point in the Banghoek Valley for ships entering Table Bay Harbour.
