This foundational background course in Judaic Studies takes the student from Biblical Israel to the diverse, contemporary world of Jewish civilization in just one semester. Once the course moves beyond the historical emergence of the Jews and Judaism, it considers the question of “who are the Jews” and how individual Jews think of themselves as belonging to this people. Three credits.