Minnesota Can-Do Climate Actions

Minnesotans have been telling legislators about the urgent need to address climate change. This bold package of one-time appropriations is inspired by what we have heard. These new investments will enable Minnesotans to participate directly in solutions that address the climate crisis.

Can-Do Energy Efficiency Projects
- $30 million investment for homeowners (Rep. Ami Wazlawik)
- $20.5 million investment for public schools (Rep. Shelly Christensen)
- $20 million investment for nursing homes (Rep. Todd Lippert)
- $15 million investment for commercial buildings (Rep. Jamie Long)

Can-Do Solar Projects
- $16 million investment for public schools (Rep. Patty Acomb)
- $10 million investment for homeowners (Rep. Steve Sandell)

Can-Do Transportation Projects
- $20 million investment for electric school buses (Rep. Zach Stephenson)
- $20 million investment for electric public transit buses (Rep. Fue Lee)
- $15 million investment for electric vehicle rebates (Rep. Jamie Long)

Can-Do Local Government Projects
- $5 million investment for planning (Rep. Samantha Vang)
- $5 million investment for solid waste diversion (Rep. Robert Bierman)
- $5 million investment for new technology demonstrations (Rep. Jeff Brand)

Can-Do Environment Projects
- $6.5 million investment for conservation (Rep. Brad Tabke)
- $2.5 million investment for local EAB disposal (Rep. Dan Wolgamott)
- $1 million investment for natural carbon sequestration research (Rep. Edelson)

TOTAL: $191.5 million