Are you a graduate or professional student with a passion for maternal and child health?

The Maternal and Child Health (MCH) Section of the American Public Health Association (APHA) is currently accepting applications for the Student Fellows Program 2020-2021 cohort.

The goals of the Student Fellows Program are:

- Student Fellows will develop leadership skills in order to affect future change in the field of MCH.
- Student Fellows will receive adequate networking opportunities throughout the program.
- Upon program completion, Student Fellows will pursue leadership positions within the MCH Section.
- Upon program completion, Student Fellows will remain members of the MCH Section.

Student Fellows will have the opportunity to attend the 2020 Annual Meeting & Exposition, network with leaders in public health and MCH, and pursue leadership roles within the MCH Section. This year, Fellows will engage in planning and activities for the 100th anniversary of the MCH Section.

See the Call for Applications and Frequently Asked Questions for details and application instructions.

Applications are due June 1, 2020 at 11:59pm
