NEW EACH DAY | a daily devotion from Corrie Ten Boom

In our World War II prison camp, Betsie and I had to go on a roll call very early in the bitterly cold morning. Sometimes we would be sent too early. Then we would take a chance and walk quietly around the camp. Everything was black. There was no light anywhere.

In that cold blackness, Betsie and I walked with the Lord and talked with the Lord. Betsie said something, I said something, then the Lord said something. How? I don't know, but we both understood what He said. That was a little bit of heaven in the midst of hell.

*"...And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."
(Matthew 28:20)*

Lord, help me to speak to you always, especially in my times of darkness, and to listen when You speak to me.
