MINI-BOOKS

Available in the foyer are mini-books. These are short resources that dive quickly into everyday life struggles and topics written by Pastors and Counselors who help us understand how to Biblically and practically walk well through challenging life circumstances.

These are just a few to mention:

- Breaking the Addictive Cycle: Deadly Obsessions or Simply Pleasures?
- Can We Talk? The Art of Relationship Building;
- Burned Out? Trusting God with Your To-do List;
- Chronic Pain: Living by Faith When Your Body Hurts;
- Conflict: a Redemptive Opportunity;

* When mini books run out, they will be replaced as soon as possible.

2020

*Love is patient and kind;
love does not envy or boast;
it is not arrogant or rude.
It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful...*

NEW EACH DAY | a daily devotion from Corrie Ten Boom

What has Jesus, the Son of God, done for us? He left heaven and came down to earth. He humbled Himself to be born as a baby and to be laid in a manger. He endured the life of this world for thirty-three years and died on a cross to bear the punishment of our sin. What is He now doing in glory? He is praying for us; He is pleading for us.

Was the only decision you made the one when you accepted Him as your Savior? That was important. You were born again, but you were a baby. Is there not much more that the Lord asks from you now?

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. (Romans 12:1)

Lord Jesus, what a lot You did for me. When I look at what I have done for You, I realize that I may, I must, surrender my all to You today. Love others through me, Lord.
