

HSPA Foundation

LEGACY SCHOLARSHIPS

Win a $1,000 scholarship for your child

Each year, the Hoosier State Press Association Foundation awards two $1,000 scholarships to children or grandchildren of an employee or independent contractor of an HSPA member newspaper.

Please note: There are no restrictions on a student's major. These Foundation awards were previously focused strictly on journalism students but the new Legacy Scholarships are aimed at benefiting the children and grandchildren of our industry's best assets: our employees and independent contractors.

Who can apply

- Students entering any post-secondary education or vocational training.
- Students in their second year of any post-secondary education or vocational training.

How to apply

- Complete attached application and include required documents.
- Mail completed applications to the HSPA Foundation office.

Deadline

Applications must be received at the HSPA Foundation office by Friday, March 13.

Scholarship winners will be notified by May 1.

Legacy Scholarship documentation

Attach the following documents to your application:

1. Documentation of the acceptance to the college/university/school you will attend.
2. Name of the teacher or administrator (and his/her school) who will submit a letter of recommendation. (To be mailed in separately by the recommender)
3. Letter from the publisher of newspaper/contractor verifying employment, contract information and current job description of the parent/grandparent(s).
4. Personal statement (minimum 600 words; maximum 1500 words) written by the student detailing why he/she should receive this award.

Students might want to include information on the courses they have completed, particularly those that apply to their future plans; awards they have received; extracurricular activities; jobs they have held; difficulties they have overcome; career plans — perhaps describe their “dream job.”
